

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 23, 2010

Media Contact: Cindy Wang
302-239-0432, de_cacc@comcast.net

CACC Holds Annual Chinese Festival A CELEBRATION OF CULTURE AND CHINESE LEGENDS

The Chinese American Community Center (“CACC”) will kick off the annual three-day Chinese Festival on Friday, June 18 from 5:00pm to 9:00pm, Saturday, June 19 from 10:00am to 8:00pm and Sunday, June 20, 2010 from 11:00am to 5:00pm at its facility at 1313 Little Baltimore Road, Hockessin, Delaware, 19707. Since the inaugural event in 1992, the Chinese Festival has become a truly unique and important event in celebrating the rich diversity of Chinese culture in the Greater Wilmington region. Through exhibits, gourmet food, and cultural performances, the event attracted thousands every year.

Visitors will be transported back to the world’s earliest civilization with the newfangled exhibition of “Oracle Bones” – the earliest discovered Chinese characters carved on turtle shells and ox bones to predict future. Exhibition resources will come from the museum located at Anyang city in Henan Province, China, where “Oracle Bones” were first discovered from the turtle shells and ox bones.

The Chinese Festival will feature various cultural performances and demonstrations including Dragon Dance, Lion Dance, Folk Dance, Beijing Opera, Tai Chi, Cooking, Kong Fu, etc. “I’m sure we will present extremely diversified numbers of programs and fun activities for everyone in the family,” says Juliana Soo, the Chairperson for the Chinese Festival Planning Committee of CACC, “This year, acrobats and magic are coming from New York!”

In addition to the theme exhibitions and versatile performances, the food court is always an attraction to the visitors. Authentic Chinese Cuisines are offered. Visitors can partake of the Chinese style barbecue and explore the legends of Marco Polo by tasting the original “Chinese Spaghetti”! Legend has it that Marco Polo got his inspiration for Italian spaghetti after spending time in China in the 13th century.

CACC is a non-profit organization serving the greater Wilmington and South Eastern Pennsylvanian communities since 1982 with the vision of promoting the exchange and integration of Chinese and American cultures. “The Chinese Festival has become a trademark event in the greater Wilmington area. We are thrilled for bringing another event featuring many new themes and programs. The members of CACC are dedicated and determined to bring the beauty and grace of Chinese culture to a wider audience”, said Kang Lin, Chairman of CACC.

The admission is free for the CACC Chinese Festival with a $5 parking fee per vehicle. For more information on the festival, please visit <http://chinesefestival.org/> or contact the CACC office at 302-239-0432 or cacc_de@hotmail.com. For more information on CACC, please visit caccdelaware.org.